A FRIGHTFUL WRECK.

Slight Persons Most Instant and Horrible Death.

SCORES OF OTHERS AWFULLY BURNED

A Dozen at Least, of Whom Will Die—
The Accident Caused by a
Burning Oil Tank of a Burning Train.

ALTON, Ill., Jan. 22.—Nine persons killed outright, twelve fatally injured and nearly a hundred more or less seriously hurt, is the appalling result of a series of accidents at Alton Junction yesterday. An open switch on the Big Four main track was the prime cause of the disaster. The Southern Railway Limited train through the switch into a freight train standing on the siding, and Engineer Webb Ross of the limited was instantly killed. The wreck took place at 10:15 a. m. and the train was watching the spectacle an oil-tank car exploded with terrific force, enveloping the spectators in a sheet of burning oil. Eight of them were instantly killed and scores were seriously injured, a dozen of whom, at least, will die.

Alton Junction, on the main line, is located two miles east of this city and is a water, transfer and freight station for the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroads. The latter road joins the Big Four at this point, running into St. Louis. The freight train, known as the Southern Railway Limited, was coming out from St. Louis at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, thirteen minutes late and making up lost time, but lost time, but threw on the air brakes and stalled with his machine, being barred in the wreck and burned to a crisp. Fireman White jumped and escaped unharmed. The passengers were fearfully shaken up but none were seriously hurt.

An eyewitness says that the shock of the collision was such as to split two loaded tanks wide open, and the oil immediately caught fire, the flames shooting fifty feet into the air. The locomotive and baggage cars were totally wrecked, but the remainder of the passenger train was removed beyond the reach of the flames.

In an incredibly short time the freight train was a mass of flames. Fear of an explosion prevented any attempt to save it. The wreckage lay along the track East St. Louis at 11 o'clock, but could do little, and half a dozen switch engines were run out from here to clear the yard. Traffic on the two roads was entirely suspended, and a special train was made up on the Chicago & Alton to carry loaded passengers through to St. Louis.

Hearing of the wreck, hundreds of people from this city and vicinity were attracted by curiosity to the scene. And then occurred one of the most awful disasters on record.

A few minutes past 10 o'clock there was a light explosion of one tank, setting fire to the stockyard enclosure. This produced the impression that the danger of explosion was past, and the throng of bystanders rushed in to save the stockyard from destruction. A minute later there was a deafening report that shook the ground for half a mile and spread a sheet of seething, burning oil in all directions. For those within the circle of 100 yards there was no escape. Their clothing was burned and they were taken to the hospital. In a moment those who were not disabled began running higher and higher, and others ran into the fields and are missing.

Panic reigned for a short time, until the uninjured recovered their presence of mind to care for the afflicted. Two grocers and a doctor in a temporary grocery store and applied to the wounds by several physicians who happened to be on the ground. Every house in the vicinity was turned into a temporary hospital and every doctor in Alton and its vicinity was summoned. As soon as possible a train was made up and twenty of the sufferers were brought here to St. Joseph's hospital. The list of killed and injured, as nearly complete as possible at this hour, is as follows:

THE FURY OF A MOB.

Directed Against the Author of Sunday Closing in Denver.

A BLOODY CONFLICT WITH THE POLICE.

In Which Many of the Rioters Received Serious Injuries—A Parsonage Wrecked After the Preacher Had Flown.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 22.—The grandest against Sunday night amusements in this city culminated to-night in the arrest of the managers and performers in all the houses of the city from the Central variety theater up to the Tabernacle, where a concert was being given by the Hungarian orchestra.

Dean Hart, of Trinity Episcopal church, has been at the head of the movement, and after the arrests had been made a mob of about five hundred people gathered, and after a few incendiary speeches moved to the Central variety theater up to the Tabernacle. Here they proceeded to demolish the windows and doors of the parsonage, and only quit when every light in the house was out.

The clanging of bells sounded, and patrol wagons from the first and second divisions rushed to the scene. The rioters were scattered down by the horses, and then the police, clubs in hand, beat the mob back and drove the people out of the hallway, and after a sharp but desperate struggle, forced them to the street.

Five hundred persons were in the crowd, and they determined to make another onslaught. Clank, clank and thirty policemen stood their ground. They fought the infuriated mob with their clubs, but were forced back to the porch, and finally to the hallway. Then, as a last resort, revolvers were drawn.

The rioters were scattered down by the horses, and then the police, clubs in hand, beat the mob back and drove the people out of the hallway, and after a sharp but desperate struggle, forced them to the street.

Not since the Chinese riot of 1880, in which four men were killed, has there been such excitement in the city.

For the past two months Rev. Dean Hart has agitated the city by his Sunday policy of amusement. He has been severe in his criticisms and spared none. The dean is an Englishman. He is not a citizen of the state of Colorado. He refused to become naturalized, and boasts of it. These facts had much to do with the violence of to-night's outbreak.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The new Colombian postage stamp was yesterday introduced in the Senate by Mr. Wilson (Colo.), who called up his bill resolution directing the postmaster general to issue a stamp of fifty cents, and to have made from his sale to stamp collectors—Mr. Wilson said, that might suit some collectors, but he was unwilling to have a stamp of fifty cents, and he was unwilling to have a stamp of fifty cents, and he was unwilling to have a stamp of fifty cents.

BRITISH EXPEDITION.
CAIRO, Jan. 22.—The good impression caused by the success of Great Britain's intervention in the Egyptian cabinet affair is giving way to a feeling of great anxiety among the European powers in consequence of the almost defiant attitude since adopted by the khedive. The khedive's open encouragement of popular demonstrations has done much to increase the popularity of the British mission in the mosque and performance in the opera house has had the effect of greatly increasing the excitement of the masses caused by the action of the English government. English officers here believe that the khedive's course has shaken the British position in Egypt and endangered the progress of the reforms instituted by the British government.

A Cabinet Crisis Imminent.
LONDON, Jan. 22.—The existence of the Portuguese cabinet is believed to be endangered in view of the proposals of the reorganizers and progress towards the financial scheme. All the members of the cabinet of deputies, except the republicans, have approved a resolution calling for a settlement of the financial question regardless of political considerations.

Must Learn the Language of Love.
BERLIN, Jan. 22.—Gen. Gourko, governor general of Warsaw, has granted a woman employee in factories in Russia a longer leave of absence to learn the Russian language. In case they do not learn the language in January, 1893, they will be expelled.

An Embroidered Allegation.
ROMA, Jan. 22.—Mr. Giannini, manager of the Bank of Naples was arrested yesterday for embezzlement of 2,000,000 lire. He was disgraced as a priest when recognized by the police.

A FAIR WARNING.

United States District Judge Baker, of Indianapolis.

DELIVERS AN INTERESTING ADDRESS

To Members of Oath-Bound Organizations Arraigned in His Court for Interfering with the Moving of Trains.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 22.—A number of Late Life & Western strikers of Macon, Ind., were before Judge Baker of the United States district court yesterday charged with contempt, in having interfered with the movement of trains after the court had enjoined them from doing so. Four of the most pleaded guilty, some of the others stood trial and others have not yet been brought in.

The court adjourned for a week, because Judge Baker's presence is required in Chicago, and in announcing this adjournment the court addressed the prisoners, for their guidance in the meantime. He said:

"In this case the evidence shows that there are a number of men who belong to a secret labor organization, whose ramifications reach not only over the entire country, but also into Canada, but into Canada as well. It has kindred associations by other names in Europe. All these organizations have the same general aim, and that is, by force, violence and terrorism, to compel employers to submit their business, their property, their means of livelihood to the arbitrary demands of these associations. In their secret, oath-bound assemblies they determine for themselves on what terms they will work for others. They refuse those who are not members of their association the opportunity to labor on their farms, in their shops, in their mines, in their factories, in their workshops, in their offices, in their homes, in their schools, in their churches, in their synagogues, in their mosques, in their temples, in their shrines, in their places of worship, in their places of assembly, in their places of Coal Mining in a Family will Probably Cause a Divorce.

There has been something of a sensation in the community in the northwest corner of Illinois township, which may result in a suit for divorce.

William Gillenwater is a farmer who with his wife has lived in that community for eight or nine years and seemed, so far as the neighbors knew, to be living together peacefully. Last Wednesday, however, a neighbor was startled by Mrs. Gillenwater's sudden appearance. She was much excited and charged that her husband had struck her, and she refused to return to her home unless some one accompanied her, as she feared her husband would repeat the same upon her. A member of the neighbor's family went with her to her home and endeavored to fix up matters, but was not successful, and the same evening Mrs. Gillenwater went to the home of her father, James Ogle, who resides in Warrensburg, where she now is. Mrs. Gillenwater's story is that one day last week the family found themselves out of coal, and her husband told her he had no money and asked her to go to a neighbor's and borrow $2.00, and to say to them he would get the money at Warrensburg and would then pay it. She got the money and Gillenwater went to Illinois and got the coal. The next day he went to Warrensburg but returned without the money. His wife remonstrated and charged that he not only had not kept his word but had also told her neighbor he was a drunkard and a liar. He became angry at this and charged his wife with calling him a liar and struck her. Gillenwater refused to allow her to take away her personal effects, but on Saturday she sent out a writ of replevin and accompanied by a constable went to her home and took away the stuff.

"Two Old Crookes."

Will's original and only "Two Old Crookes," the largest farm company company on the road, is coming. There are 10 of the best singers and dancers that money could procure. The program of the opera house will have a big feast of fun in store for them Wednesday evening, Jan. 25th. The piece is a rollicking farce-comedy, which only purpose is to make fun, in which it does not fail. It is full of ludicrous situations, amusing complications and besides it permits the introduction of specialists of all kinds. Messrs. Willis & Collins' organization includes several people who have been in from the start, several years ago, and others, who are equally capable. "Pratt" and "Clay" Norman. Will plays "Volts" with a good deal of success and will always be remembered. The cast includes Little Forbes, Madeline Marshall, Emma Selig, Violet St. Clair, James Forbes, John Merritt, Barr, Bert, James Harrison, and a host of pretty girls. As far as vocal capabilities are concerned, it is the best cast "Two Old Crookes" has ever had.

Winter Wheat is Doing Well.

An unusually large crop of winter wheat was sown last fall all over Central Illinois. It did not start quite as well as it might have done on account of the dryness of the season, but it came up very well and is now showing a good growth. There has fortunately been a liberal protection of snow to the wheat plants in most districts during the past week, when the temperature reached the lowest point of the season, and although wheat is a cold weather plant, which sometimes sends its roots through cracks and pores of the soil, yet it is subject to damage by a temperature that falls below zero unless it has a warm snow blanket.

The Westerman's Memory.

The conditions of Rev. Dr. Buck's gift of $15,000 to the endowment fund of the Wesleyan have been fully met. By the energetic action of Dr. W. H. Wilder, and Rev. W. B. Baker, the agent, the amount of $15,000 has been secured. Only $2,000 was required; $7,000 will be applied on improvement. Two scholars of the Wesleyan were provided of $1,000 each, the "Florence C. C. Scholarship," by Mrs. Martha E. Cameron, of Greenfield, Ill., and "the Anderson scholarship," by Mrs. W. H. Anderson, of Chicago. Mrs. Cameron contributed $1,000 in memory of her daughter, who spent some time in the halls of the university, and was later to have received in the bloom of youth—a beautiful, ambitious, Christian character.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

Corn May Not Go Higher

Corn gained a little more during last week, and yet it is not high. It is considered that the demand for feeding will be comparatively light during the spring and summer months of the moderate number of hogs available for fattening. Many farmers are now selling their corn, but are satisfied with the present price, $1.00, and believing that it may not go higher. This is, however, something that no man can tell about, and so each person must endeavor to satisfy himself on that score as best he may.

The Swenson & Latham Co.

Prof. A. T. Van Lee has been lecturing at the Presbyterian church, was given a reception Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Prof. and Mrs. S. M. Lutz on West North street, on which occasion a large number of Deane people, including all lovers of art, called to meet the distinguished gentleman and enjoy the hospitality of the home. Mrs. Lutz, who was a student of Prof. Van Lee, who was a teacher at Jacksonville, was assisted in doing the honors by Mrs. A. D. Murphy, Mrs. J. M. Mann, Mrs. Hawley, Mrs. Ira N. Barnes, Mrs. Frank Reese, Mrs. S. M. Young, Mrs. E. B. Bandle, of Springfield, Miss Ursula, of Seattle, Wash, and Miss Paoline Kreider, of Jacksonville. The house decorations were elaborate and beautiful as to the tasteful arrangement of flowers and plants, while in the dining room where guests were served with refreshment the colors were pink and white. During the afternoon Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Murphy and Miss Kreider gave artistic road solos, and Milton and Elmer Lutz instrumental selections. It was the pleasure of all to meet and greet Prof. Van Lee, who is devoted to his art, and loves to meet people who admire paintings and are posted as to the individual work of American and foreign artists. There were many art students present and every one of them felt that, aside from the social feature of the occasion, the reception was a lesson in information on the latest points in the work of the artist. The professor had on exhibition a collection of about thirty water colors, which were greatly admired for their beauty. Ladies present arranged for the purchase of one of the pictures, a marine view, which will be placed in the Public Library. It is a beauty, a study in delicate colors. The professor departed to-day for New York. Among the visitors at the reception were Miss Miller, of Tuscola, and Miss Jenkins, of Chicago.

Death of Flora Walsh.

Mrs. Charles E. Hoyt, who of the noted playwright, died at the Park Hotel, Boston, Sunday afternoon after an illness of ten days caused by pneumonia. As Flora Walsh Mrs. Hoyt was perhaps the best known face-comedy songstress in this country and was famous for her beauty and clarity. She was born in Ben Franklin twenty-one years ago and was married to Mr. Hoyt at Charleston, N. B. in 1880. She has been stage career about ten years and has played some of her most successful characters when little more than a child, appearing in the company of Charles Reed, who died in Boston a few weeks ago. Mrs. Hoyt's last appearance in Chicago was in November last year at the Grand Opera house, where she acted in "A Kiss for a Scoundrel" and after performing in the play that she caught and Jan. 12, she was frequently appeared in Deane in the Hoyt plays, and was a prime attraction here.

Death of a Noted Stock Man.

Mr. Andrew Armstrong, the well known stock man, died suddenly at his home near Deane, in Logan county, Sunday morning. He drove to Lincoln Saturday and was thought to be in very good health. He was born in Ireland in March, 1831, and came to America in 1858. His wife preceded him to the grave about two years ago. Their sons and two daughters mourn his loss. Mr. Armstrong was best known as a breeder of fine horses and has been in competition with stockmen of the different states for years. He is known all over this and adjoining states.

Caught in St. Louis

James Stafford, alias Moore, colored, who has been wanted for the theft of a suit of clothes from a colored man at the Mrs. Stume boarding house on South Water street, was arrested Sunday in St. Louis by Detective Thomas, from Deane. To-day Marshal Mason left St. Louis to bring the prisoner to Deane. Stafford was lately in the employ of D. A. M. and assisted in passing the same up the Ohio. He will probably be sent to jail for a term of years.

Anniversary Entertainment

The Boys' Anti-Slavery and Whiskey Club will celebrate their first anniversary next Friday evening at the home of W. H. Starr, 345 West Main street. A good program has been arranged. An admission of 10 cents will be charged to assist the boys in getting the minutes of their meetings printed in pamphlet form to be distributed at the World's Fair. The boys will be around with tickets for sale, and it is hoped they will be liberally patronized.

Cemetery Trustees

An election held Saturday, January 14, in Mt. Zion by the Cemetery Association resulted in the election of the following persons: John G. Barker, president; John G. Barker, treasurer; John G. Barker, Robert, Alexander Armstrong, E. B. Root and James H. Jones. This is a first-class board. The contest is said to have been quite spirited.

Cause of the Delay

Postmaster Hubbard, who some time ago, or forced envelopes of the Columbus series for the Deane post office has received official notification that the envelopes desired may not be ready for shipment for a month. Mr. Hubbard has renewed his order, and his order postmaster will have to wait for the supply.

Discharged

At Sullivan Brewer Russell, charged with being accessory to the murder of John Miller July 4, '91, has been discharged from custody. John Esry, who committed the deed, is now at Chester serving out his sentence of 20 years for the crime.

Death of a Young School-Mistress

Miss Louise Mahor, a popular young school teacher, died at the home of her parents in Lincoln yesterday morning of hemorrhage. She had been sick but a short time and the news of her death was a severe shock to all her young friends.

Mrs. Lutz, who was a student of Prof. Van Lee, who was a teacher at Jacksonville, was assisted in doing the honors by Mrs. A. D. Murphy, Mrs. J. M. Mann, Mrs. Hawley, Mrs. Ira N. Barnes, Mrs. Frank Reese, Mrs. S. M. Young, Mrs. E. B. Bandle, of Springfield, Miss Ursula, of Seattle, Wash, and Miss Paoline Kreider, of Jacksonville. The house decorations were elaborate and beautiful as to the tasteful arrangement of flowers and plants, while in the dining room where guests were served with refreshment the colors were pink and white. During the afternoon Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Murphy and Miss Kreider gave artistic road solos, and Milton and Elmer Lutz instrumental selections. It was the pleasure of all to meet and greet Prof. Van Lee, who is devoted to his art, and loves to meet people who admire paintings and are posted as to the individual work of American and foreign artists. There were many art students present and every one of them felt that, aside from the social feature of the occasion, the reception was a lesson in information on the latest points in the work of the artist. The professor had on exhibition a collection of about thirty water colors, which were greatly admired for their beauty. Ladies present arranged for the purchase of one of the pictures, a marine view, which will be placed in the Public Library. It is a beauty, a study in delicate colors. The professor departed to-day for New York. Among the visitors at the reception were Miss Miller, of Tuscola, and Miss Jenkins, of Chicago.

Death of Flora Walsh.

Mrs. Charles E. Hoyt, who of the noted playwright, died at the Park Hotel, Boston, Sunday afternoon after an illness of ten days caused by pneumonia. As Flora Walsh Mrs. Hoyt was perhaps the best known face-comedy songstress in this country and was famous for her beauty and clarity. She was born in Ben Franklin twenty-one years ago and was married to Mr. Hoyt at Charleston, N. B. in 1880. She has been stage career about ten years and has played some of her most successful characters when little more than a child, appearing in the company of Charles Reed, who died in Boston a few weeks ago. Mrs. Hoyt's last appearance in Chicago was in November last year at the Grand Opera house, where she acted in "A Kiss for a Scoundrel" and after performing in the play that she caught and Jan. 12, she was frequently appeared in Deane in the Hoyt plays, and was a prime attraction here.

Death of a Noted Stock Man.

Mr. Andrew Armstrong, the well known stock man, died suddenly at his home near Deane, in Logan county, Sunday morning. He drove to Lincoln Saturday and was thought to be in very good health. He was born in Ireland in March, 1831, and came to America in 1858. His wife preceded him to the grave about two years ago. Their sons and two daughters mourn his loss. Mr. Armstrong was best known as a breeder of fine horses and has been in competition with stockmen of the different states for years. He is known all over this and adjoining states.

Caught in St. Louis

James Stafford, alias Moore, colored, who has been wanted for the theft of a suit of clothes from a colored man at the Mrs. Stume boarding house on South Water street, was arrested Sunday in St. Louis by Detective Thomas, from Deane. To-day Marshal Mason left St. Louis to bring the prisoner to Deane. Stafford was lately in the employ of D. A. M. and assisted in passing the same up the Ohio. He will probably be sent to jail for a term of years.

Anniversary Entertainment

The Boys' Anti-Slavery and Whiskey Club will celebrate their first anniversary next Friday evening at the home of W. H. Starr, 345 West Main street. A good program has been arranged. An admission of 10 cents will be charged to assist the boys in getting the minutes of their meetings printed in pamphlet form to be distributed at the World's Fair. The boys will be around with tickets for sale, and it is hoped they will be liberally patronized.

An election held Saturday, January 14, in Mt. Zion by the Cemetery Association resulted in the election of the following persons: John G. Barker, president; John G. Barker, treasurer; John G. Barker, Robert, Alexander Armstrong, E. B. Root and James H. Jones. This is a first-class board. The contest is said to have been quite spirited.

Cause of the Delay

Postmaster Hubbard, who some time ago, or forced envelopes of the Columbus series for the Deane post office has received official notification that the envelopes desired may not be ready for shipment for a month. Mr. Hubbard has renewed his order, and his order postmaster will have to wait for the supply.

Discharged

At Sullivan Brewer Russell, charged with being accessory to the murder of John Miller July 4, '91, has been discharged from custody. John Esry, who committed the deed, is now at Chester serving out his sentence of 20 years for the crime.

Death of a Young School-Mistress

Miss Louise Mahor, a popular young school teacher, died at the home of her parents in Lincoln yesterday morning of hemorrhage. She had been sick but a short time and the news of her death was a severe shock to all her young friends.

Counting Out Making a Count of Township Population.

The working of counting the number of people within the boundaries of Decatur township began this afternoon under the direction of the chief, J. B. McClelland, appointed by the town board. The work has been divided into five districts and special care will be taken to see that every body is found. The name of every person of every age, together with present address, is to be taken. The enumerators by districts are as follows: First, J. B. McClelland; second, George E. Miller; third, D. T. Sherman; fourth, R. W. Ferguson; fifth, J. M. Poor. The enumerators will make a report twice a week until the work is finished. As stated in these columns the other day the count is necessary to determine how many additional supervisors to which Decatur township is entitled.

Coal Famine in a Family will Probably Cause a Divorce.

There has been something of a sensation in the community in the northwest corner of Illinois township, which may result in a suit for divorce. William Gillenwater is a farmer who with his wife has lived in that community for eight or nine years and seemed, so far as the neighbors knew, to be living together peacefully. Last Wednesday, however, a neighbor was startled by Mrs. Gillenwater's sudden appearance. She was much excited and charged that her husband had struck her, and she refused to return to her home unless some one accompanied her, as she feared her husband would reopen war upon her. A member of the neighbor's family went with her to her home and endeavored to fix up matters, but was not successful, and the same evening Mrs. Gillenwater went to the home of her father, James Ogle, who resides in Warrensburg, where she now is. Mrs. Gillenwater's story is that one day last week the family found themselves out of coal, and her husband told her he had no money and asked her to go to a neighbor's and borrow $5.00 and to say to them he would get the money at Warrensburg and would then pay it. She got the money and Gillenwater went to Niantic and got the coal. The next day he went to Warrensburg but returned without the money. His wife remonstrated and charged that he not only had not kept his word but used her to deceive her neighbor. He became angry at this and charged his wife with calling him a liar and struck her. Gillenwater refused to allow her to take away her personal effects, but on Saturday she sued out a writ of replevin and accompanied by a constable went to her home and took away the stuff.

"Two Old Cronies."
Will's original and only "Two Old Cronies," the largest farce comedy company on the road, is coming. There are 15 of the best singers and dancers that money could procure. The patrons of the opera house will have a big feast of fun in store for them Wednesday evening, Jan. 25th. The piece is a rollicking farce comedy whose only purpose is to make fun, in which it does not fail. It is full of ludicrous situations, amusing complications and besides it permits the introduction of specialties of all kinds. Messrs. Wills & Collins' organization includes several people who have been in it from the start, several years ago, and others, who are equally capable. Pretty and clever Norma Wills plays "Violon" with a go and her sweet voice will always be remembered. The cast includes Lottie Forbes, Madeline Marshall, Emma Beigell, Violet St. Clair, James Forbes John Merritt, Bert Hart, James Harrigan, and a host of pretty girls. As far as vocal capabilities are concerned, it is the best cast "Two Old Cronies" has ever had.

Special Cup and Saucer Sale
We open to-day a Special Sale of Cups and Saucers, embracing every imaginable shape and make—over 500 styles in A. D. Coffees, many styles in 5 o'clock Tea sets, as well as all sizes of Tea, Tea Extra and Coffee. We will place them at a price as low as were our plates and pitchers the past week, which insured such a successful sale in those lines. We intend that our special sale shall be a feature of our business, every January and February, and the former price and cost of the goods shall not go figure with us in marking these goods down. Prices will run from 15c up, and the variety will be (as it was on plates and pitchers) three times greater than any one in Decatur. Our Special Sales are arranged on first floor.

Winter Wheat is Doing Well.
An unusually large crop of winter wheat was sown last fall over Central Illinois. It did not start quite as well as it might have done on account of the dryness of the season, but it came up tolerably well and the present winter has so far been very favorable to the young growth. There has fortunately been a liberal protection of snow to the wheat plants in most districts during the past week, when the temperature reached the lowest point of the season, and although wheat is a cold weather plant, which sometimes sends its roots through cracks and pores of ice, yet it is subject to damage by a temperature that falls below zero unless it has a warm snow blanket.

The Wesleyan's Money.
The conditions of Rev. Dr. Enoch's gift of $15,000 to the endowment fund of the Wesleyan have been fully met. By the energetic action of Dr. W. H. Wilder, and Rev. B. W. Baker, the agent, the amount of $42,145 has been secured. Only $5,000 was required; $17,000 will be applied on improvements. Two scholarships have been provided of $1,000 each, the "Florence Cameron scholarship," by Mrs. Martha E. Cameron, of Greenfield, Ill., and "the Nelson scholarship," by W. W. Anderson, of Taylorville, Ill. Mrs. Cameron contributed the $1,000 in memory of her daughter, who spent some time in the halls of the university, and was taken to her reward in the bloom of youth—a beautiful, ambitious, christian character—Bloomington Pantagraph.

Corn May Not Go Higher
Corn gained a little more during last week, and yet it is not high. It is contended that the demand for feeding will be comparatively light during the spring and summer because of the moderate number of hogs available for fattening. Many farmers are now selling their corn, but it is satisfied with the present price, 35c, and believing that it may not go higher. This is, however, something that no man can tell about, and so each person must endeavor to satisfy himself on that score as best he may.
